it must believe that they have not chosen the better way.

It is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord. In no sense is it the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. ente at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The only journal at the seat of the Federal The only journal at the scat of the Federal Government, representing the Anti-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Sentiment is represented here by four daily papers, nearly all of them being liberally sustained by Governmental patronage, it asks the support of all who believe, in sincerity, that the Union was formed to secure the blessings of Liberty, and not to perpetuate the curse of Slavery.

A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

THE LIVING AGE has been abundantly honored by the approbation of the best judges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854, Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quorierly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respect able Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday. The LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 12; cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Living Age, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

A Labaster Starch Gloss.—The most pure, glossy, and finest, snow-white starch, is the world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It preserves the clothes and gives them a glossy and enamelled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five deliars, which has been dene. Now, ladies and gentlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the geneorus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of literality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern.

In the first paper of January next, we design commencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for our columns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS, By EMERSON BENNETT, author of "Viola," UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS,
By EMERSON BENNETT, author of "Viola,"
"Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc.
This Rovelet, by the popular author of "Clara Moreland," we design following by another, called
THE STEP-MOTHER.
By Mrs. MARY A. DENISON, author of "Home Pictures," "Gertrude Russell," etc.
We have also the promise of a number of
SKETCHES BY GRACE GREENWOOD,
Whose brilliant and versatile pen will be almost exclusively employed upon the Post and her own "Littie Pilgrim."
Mrs. Southworth—whose fascinating works are now being rapidly republished in England—also, will maintain her old and pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her gifted pen will be entitled 2
Miriam. The Avenger: or. The Fatal Vow.

Miriam, The Avenger; or, The Fatal Vow. By EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, author of "The Ourse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Deserted Wife," etc.

And last—not least—we are authorised to announce a sories of articles from one who has rapidly risen very high in popular favor. They will be entitled

A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,

A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,
By FANNY FERN, author of "Fern Leaves," etc.
We expect to be able to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern, as well as the series by Grace Greenwood, in the early numbers of the coming year.
Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, The News, Congressional Reports, The Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.

BUCHANAN ON GRAPE CULTURE,

AND LONGWORTH ON THE STRAWBERRY. AND LONGWORTH ON THE STRAWBERRY.

THIS day published, the Fifth Edition, Revised.
One volume 12mo, cloth, 63 cents.
This volume should be in the hands of every cultivator of these delicious fruits, for it embodies, in a compact and available form, the experience of accomplished and practical Horticulturists on subjects which have come directly under their own observation for a long series of years. Of a former edition of "Buchanan on the Grape," we subjoin a few NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Downing in his Horticulturiation.

Mr. Downing, in his Horticulturist, says: "It deals more with facts, with actual experience and observation, and less with speculation, supposition, and belief, than anything on this topic that has yet appeared in the United States. In other words, a man may take it, and plant a vineyard, and raise grapes with success." "Furnishes, in a small space, a very great amount of instructive information relative to the culture of the Grape."—Farmer's and Planter's Encyclopadia.

"Will be found to convey the most opportune and valuable instruction, to all interested in the subject." Neill's Fruit and Flower Garden. Those who desire the book sent by mail will receive it, propaid, by remitting the price, by letter postpaid, to the Publishers.

Located in the vilinge of McGrawville, in the county of tortiand. New York, was founded in 1849, upon the bread principles of "Equal Rights and Christian Reform," and is open to all persons, of both sexes, of good moral character.

IT has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students; and we believe we may now safely recommend it, under the supervision and care of President Leonard G. Calkins, whose ability for that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent "Board of Instruction." Free from the unholy influence of larger towns, and pervaded by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begotten valed by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think purents must feel a degree of security, begotten by no other set of circumstances.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the careful training of the President. The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his arduous and noble work.

The Manual Labor Department of the School is under the supervision of Mr. Luther Wellington, a practical farmer, a kind and benevolent man, on a farm of one hundred and fifty-seven acres.

A primery school is taught by Miss Keriah King, a thorough and efficient teacher, for the accommodation of any one who may not be prepared to enter the Academic Department.

The boarding hall will be conducted by Mr. Lyman Buits, who, together with an amiable family, will make boarding both cheap and pleasant.

The College year is divided into three terms: The first term, of fourteen weeks, will open on the first Thursday in September.

The second, or Winter term, will commence on the second Thursday in December, and continue fourteen weeks.

The third and last, or Summer term, will begin on the second Thursday in April, and close at the College Commencement, on the second Wednesday in July.

THE most extraordinary and Thrilling Tale of modern times. This is the universal testimony of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Reading Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand far this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE. The following are samples of the opinions of the Corps Editorial: We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamp lighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most successful of modern romances.—Dasly Eev. Traveller, Boston. For delica's and forcible delineation of character, this work is hardly excelled — Boston Journal,

For delicate and foreible delineation of character, this work is hardly excelled.—Boston Journal.

The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around firesides and in hearths where now it may be there is much of darkness and despair.—Daviy Dee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would decredit to any writer.—Davily Advertises, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, whick indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inelegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Davily Atlas.
